WITH
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.1765 OF 2007

Sanjay G. Sawane ....Applicant.
Vs.
Union of India & Ors. ....Respondents.

Mr.Uday Warunjikar, adv. i/b Y.M.Rohira, for the Applicants.

Mr.Manoranjan Sahu for CBI.

Mr.Y.S.Shinde, APP for the Respondent/State.

CORAM : J.H.BHATIA, J.
DATE : JUNE 13, 2007.

P.C.

1. After some discussion at bar, Mr.Warunjikar the learned counsel for the applicants seek to withdraw these applications with liberty to file application for bail under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. before the Sessions Court. He makes a statement that today the applicants shall move the applications and he will also serve notice of the same to the respondents. In view of the fact that applicants are in jail in a matter where there is a dispute whether the offence is bailable or not, matter needs to be disposed off at the earliest. The learned Judge of the Sessions Court shall hear the parties on the applications that may be filed on 15th June, 2007. Mr.Manoranjan Sahu the learned counsel for the Union of India is also present. He should take note of this.

2. In view of the above circumstances, applications stand disposed off and if the applicants file the applications before the Sessions Court today, the learned Judge of the Sessions Court shall hear the parties on 15th June, 2007 and dispose off the matter at the earliest. If the respondents feel it necessary, they may file reply on or before 15th June, 2007. All contentions of the parties are left open.
